

ALLEGED "TIGER" OPERATORS SENTENCED TO COUNTY ROADS

Convicted of Violating Prohibition Laws, Gus Stephens, Will Griffin, Charley Trautwein and King Richards and Clem Bush take Appeals; Only Two Sentences Suspended.

Sentenced to hard labor on the county roads, five alleged violators of the prohibition laws took appeals from the Circuit Court today. Sentence was passed upon the men by Judge H. A. Pearce at 10 o'clock this morning. Besides the five, two others were sentenced to hard labor, but sentences were suspended by the judge, pending the future good behavior of the defendants.

Lively interest has been manifested in the work of the Circuit Court this week, in view of the fact that a number of cases charging violation of the whiskey laws, were on the trial docket. Several of the cases went to trial, followed by convictions, while thirteen cases were not-prossed.

There has been some speculation as to whether Judge Pearce would put on the hard labor sentence, but all doubt was removed when the proper time for passing the sentences was reached. As soon as it was announced that the defendants would have to work the county roads, according to the mandate of the court, attorneys for the defendants appealed the cases to another court.

The Sentences.
The following sentences were passed, the defendants having been convicted of violating the prohibition laws:

Gus Stephens, six months, appeal taken; Will Griffin, six months, appeal taken; Charley Trautwein, three months, appeal taken; King Richards, six months, appeal taken; Clem Bush, six months, appeal taken.

A. M. Stephens was fined $250 on a charge of violating the prohibition laws, and sentenced to six months hard labor, the sentence being suspended pending his future good behavior.

Davis Hunter of Ashford, charged with violating the prohibition laws, was fined $50 and sentenced to six months hard labor, which was suspended pending his future good behavior.

A number of misdemeanor cases are set for trial next week, the trial docket also including two second degree murder cases, the defendants being Charley Thompson, white and James Toney, colored. Both cases are set for trial Tuesday.

LEE TO HIS SON.

From the New York Sun.
The death of Gen. G. W. C. Lee, eldest son of Gen. R. E. Lee, recalls to mind a private letter of the famous Southerner written to his son, under date of April 5, 1852, when Custis Lee was a cadet at the United States military academy at West Point, and which was found at Arlington House during the Civil War.

The letter throughout is characterized by conciseness, concinnity, and clarity, and on this account should find a place in any anthology as a masterpiece of correct English and a model of parental character building advice:

"Arlington House, April 5, 1852.
"My Dear Son:

"I am just in the act of leaving home for New Mexico. My old regiment has been ordered to that distant region and I must hasten to see that they are properly taken care of. Your letters breathe a true spirit of frankness. They have given myself and your mother great pleasure. You must study to be frank with the world; frankness is the child of honesty and courage. Say what you mean to do on every occasion, and take it for granted that you mean to do right. If a friend asks a favor you should grant it, if it is reasonable; if not, tell him plainly why you cannot. Never do a wrong thing to make a friend or keep one; the man who requires you to do so is dearly purchased at a sacrifice.

"Deal kindly, but firmly, with your classmates. You will find it the policy which wears best. Above all, do not appear to others what you are not. If you have any fault to find with any one, tell him, not others, of what you complain; there is no more dangerous experiment than that of undertaking to be one thing before a man's face and another behind his back. We should live, act and say nothing to the injury of any one. It is not only best as a matter of principle, but it is the path of peace and honor.

In regard to duty, let me, in conclusion of this hasty letter, inform you that nearly a hundred years ago there was a day of remarkable gloom and darkness—still known as the dark day, a day when the light of the sun was slowly extinguished, as if by an eclipse. The legislature of Connecticut was in session, and as its members saw the unexpected and unaccountable darkness coming on they shared in the general awe and terror. It was supposed by many that the last day, the day of judgment had come. Someone, in the consternation of the hour, moved an adjournment. Then there arose an old Puritan legislator, Davenport of Stamford, and said that if the last day had come he desired to be found at his place doing his duty, and therefore moved that candles be brought in so that the house could proceed with its duty.

"There was quietness in that man's soul, the quietness of heavenly wisdom and unshakable willingness to obey present duty. "Duty, then, is the sublimest word in our language. Do your duty in

30,000 SUNDAY SCHOOL MEN IN PARADE

Chicago, Ill. June 27.—Over thirty thousand Sunday School men marched in a giant parade this afternoon, the feature of the International Sunday School convention in session here. Fifty altars were carried on the shoulders of marchers, and behind each altar a Bible, typifying America as a land of the open Bible.

Marchers represented every section of the United States, Canada, Mexico, Philippines, Porto Rico, and many other countries. Mayor Harrison and other prominent men viewed the parade from a stand in Grant Park.

NEXT BATTLE WILL BE AT QUERETARO

Zacatecas, Mexico, June 27.—General Villa believes the next serious fighting between federals and constitutionalists will be at Queretaro, within one hundred and fifty miles of Mexico City, and where the federals will concentrate for the deciding battle.

The rebel chief declared this morning before leaving for Aguas Calientes that the shadow of the rope has already fallen across the neck of Huerta.

REVIVAL BEGINS AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. D. P. Montgomery and son are expected to arrive from Mississippi in time to conduct the services at the Dothan First Baptist church in the morning. If they fail to reach the city in time the pastor will preach.

This is to begin a meeting of days in this church to last for ten days or two weeks. The pastor urges that every member of the church be present at all the services, which will be held in the mornings at 10:00 and in the evenings at 8:00. All the people of the city of what ever denomination are most cordially and earnestly invited to these meetings. The singers of the various churches are requested to assist in the song service. It is especially desired that the children be brought to the meeting.

Dr. Montgomery comes highly recommended as a Gospel preacher. He is not a sensationalist, but preaches in simplicity and power. His son, Mr. Paul Montgomery, is a Gospel singer of ability and a most earnest personal worker.

The Sunday School meets at 9:40 as usual. Baptist Young People's Union meets at 7:15.

CROSSIN CONTINENT FOR KISS BY WILSON

Washington, June 25.—Ten-year-old Laura Margaret Kelly traveled all the way from Los Angeles to Washington to be kissed by President Wilson, and today she obtained her heart's desire.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Kelly, the former being an old Princeton coach, who is well known to President Wilson.

All things like the old Puritan. You cannot do more. You should never wish to do less. Never let me and your mother wear one gray hair for any lack of duty on your part. Your affectionate father.

BIDDING DATE MAY BE CHANGED

Lively Interest Anticipated Among Contractors for City Hall Building.

It is likely that the date of July 6 originally agreed upon by the committee for receiving bids from contractors for the construction of the new city hall building will be changed to July 14, although the question has not been decided positively.

The committee having the work in hand met with Architect Morris, of Atlanta, who made the plans, and went over a few slight alterations recently, at which time July 6 was the time appointed for receiving sealed bids.

Indications are that the bidding for the job will be spirited among contractors, as the erection of the building, which will be an up-to-date structure, represents an interesting expenditure of money. Bonds to pay for the bill were sold to Spitzer, Rorick & Company, of Toledo, Ohio, a few months ago the amount being $40,000. At that time there was a lively controversy as to where the hall ought to be located, and the controversy may not be definitely settled yet. No new move, however, have been made recently.

Negro Boy Weds in Shoe Shop

After being escorted about town for a few hours by an officer, a negro boy, wearing short pants, went to J. K. Orr's shoe store, West Main street at high noon, where he was married to a dusky maiden, who was also in her teens. Justice Baxley performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by a large crowd of curious persons.

The bride was clad in a cute little middy blouse and wore a smile the entire time. The groom must have been timid for he blushed and paid his dues. The couple were undecided about their honeymoon. Willey wanted to go to Europe while hubbly wanted to visit his forefathers in Africa.

ROOSEVELT TO CURTAIL PLANS FOR CAMPAIGN

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 27.—After consulting with Dr. Lambert, his physician, Theodore Roosevelt announced he will curtail his plans for the summer political campaign. Ever since his South American trip Roosevelt has suffered intermittent attacks of fever, which has greatly weakened him. His throat is still weak and Dr. Lambert found him suffering also from enlarged spleen and malaria. He ordered Roosevelt to take four months rest. After argument the Colonel decided to abandon his trip to California and certain other speaking as much as possible.

UNABLE TO FIND WORK, BOOKKEEPER TRIES TO END LIFE

Savannah, Ga., June 27.—Crazed by heavy drinking, Edwin Hussey, a white man, 26 years old, of Charlotte, N. C., attempted to take his own life today by firing a pistol bullet into his right temple. Hussey was stopping at a rooming house on Jones street, west, and was found unconscious in a room occupied by his brother-in-law, R. O. Whitaker, nearly an hour after shooting himself.

According to information furnished the police by Whitaker, Hussey left Jacksonville, where he has been employed as a bookkeeper, about ten days ago, and went to Charleston to enlist in the navy. Drinking however, interfered with his plans to enlist, and he came to Savannah a few days ago. He was unable to get a job here.

ACROSS ATLANTIC FLIGHT MAY OCCUR IN AUGUST

Hammondsport, N. Y., June 27.—Definite announcement today that the trans-Atlantic aeroplane America would not be shipped to New Foundland until July 11 means that the flight in Europe cannot begin before July 23 or 24 at the earliest.

It is reported that if the America is not in perfect trim before this date in July, Lieutenant John C. Porte, her pilot, will postpone the trip until August, so that he can have the benefit of the full moon.

SCARLET FEVER BREAKS OUT IN SALEM, MASS.

Salem, Mass., June 27.—An epidemic of scarlet fever now threatens this stricken city. Several children stricken with the disease before the fire, sought refuge in the homeless camps with the result that the disease has spread rapidly. As fast as the cases can be located they are isolated.

An insurance adjuster who went carefully over the scene today placed the loss at twelve million with ten million insurance.

Many persons are still missing and numerous families still separated, but this is probably due to the confusion instead of loss of life. The relief fund reached two hundred thousand dollars today.

HUERTA SHIPS BIG SHIP TO PARIS BANKS

Paris, June 27.—Banks here received word today that General Huerta has shipped two million and five hundred thousand dollars to this city for deposit. This is taken to indicate that Huertan is making preparations to leave Mexico.

LUKE M'LUKE SAYS From the Cincinnati Enquirer.

A man never worries about saying time until he finds he hasn't much left.

A conversation is usually a lifetime space wasted by a good listener who has to be courteous to a good talker.

Don't worry, girls. The men may knock the transparent skirts. But you don't see many of them going around blindfolded on sunny days.

A man will brag about his wife in other respects. But he will never admit that she has a sense of humor.

Couldn't get the credit. But the speediest recovery a girl carries is what a boob talks for.

Live so that when you die your friends won't have to square their consciences when they say they are sorry you are gone.

It doesn't matter how truthful we know a man to be, we never believe him when he tells us how he got that black eye.

When the bride quits bragging about her husband and merely admits that he isn't any worse than lots of other men, you can bet that the honeymoon is full of embarrassing feld.

You may have noticed that the man who admires sensible girls always married the other kind.

The old fashioned woman who could put a lot of pots and skillets on the stove and dig up a square meal for five kids out of nothing now has a daughter whose husband would starve to death if she ever lost the can opener.

Moran, a white man, is jubilant over his chances of winning the title and is confident of success. Johnson is equally as confident. The battle is three to two with Johnson the favorite. Moran weighs 261 pounds, and Johnson 220 pounds. Some claim Johnson is too fat.

The box receipts on the fight are one hundred thousand dollars. Johnson gets thirty-five thousand dollars, win, loss or draw. Moran gets five thousand.

The fight is for twenty rounds and begins between three and four P. M., central United States time.

MAINLY A STATE OF MIND.

Jackson (Miss.) Daily News.

We are glad the women's clubs are going to see what they can do to fix up a scheme for modest dressing by women. It is their task, if anybody's.

But we would like to suggest, without offense intended, that modesty is not a state of dress so much as it is a state of mind. The hotel maid in the middle of Africa was modest enough when Livingston found her wearing not much more than a nose ring and a smile. For that was the custom of the tribe and well suited to the climate of the country, and there were no alert-minded folks who saw anything out of the way in it. It was no more immodest to the savages than the hoop skirts of our grandmothers, which had to be suppressed every time they sat down, and it did not caricature the human form divine as did the abominable bustle.

It is the state of mind that needs fixing in this country. We liked what we read of the talk which Kinsland gave before the club women in Chicago.

He wanted women to mother motherless girls, to work for better economic conditions, to teach the young the truths of life, but, above all, he urged mothers to train their sons to honor womanhood. That last is something every mother can do, beginning immediately. And it will begin to take effect as soon as it is rightly started.

The youngster who is reared in a good home to respect his mother and his sisters may later slip and stumble, but he will never entirely forget the suggestions of that early training.

Chances are you will not see him haunting dives and street corners with his mind full of vile notions and his main concern to add to life's devilry.

CHANGING THE NAME.

When The Eagle suggested some days ago that the Montgomery Business Men's League was changing its name to the Chamber of Commerce, in order put new life in the organization, the Montgomery papers said "Tut, Tut, Tut."

But we are right. We knew this commercial organization was becoming stagnant; we knew the change was another method of enlivening new working capital. Now The Times halfway admits it:

"Change of name will not put new life and vim into the business organization of this city. Chamber of Commerce sounds big, but new blood and new brains will be necessary to do things. To get out of the old rut, new horses and new vehicles must be ordered."

There now, we suspected at once.

Now we think it a good idea to change occasionally, for a name that sounds bigger. Dothan did that. We are now wearing our third name, and it's a him-dinger.

DEBATING A POLICY.

Old Man Wear, and his partner, Wilkon, run the Opelika News, one of the best dailies of its class in the South. They are usually level-headed in their ideas. The same thing has occurred to them that has occurred to The Eagle. For ever so long, we have noted that all the enemies the editor of this paper has, grew out of articles appearing in The Eagle. And taken as a whole, we thought that the paper had been rather lenient in its dealings with people.

The Opelika News has about a column, going into the matter of printing that class of news that is almost sure to make somebody mad. It has adopted about the same plan The Eagle has. Men don't grow too big, and of too much importance for The Eagle to print the news about them, when it is news.

When liquor was outlawed in this town, we made a habit of publishing the court records of cases of liquor law violations. There are some other cases that get into the court, where we believe the morals of the country would be better if they were published, and we publish those items.

Following is what The News man says about it in his town:

"This paper, in line with its endeavor to be a newspaper, has here, before printed the court news—that is of the major courts. Regardless of who the parties were, or the case against them, it has been our rule, when the same became of record in the court, to print it as news. For some years we have not printed the petty news of the police court of the city, save in some case or cases of more than passing interest—such as those of bootleggers and their sort. As we have reasoned it publication of all the petty cases in the mayor's court would, in the aggregate, prove more harmful than beneficial. Very few of such cases are of enough public interest to make it incumbent on us publishing them as matters of news. In many instances the charges are trivial, the offenses often committed by thoughtless boys or equally thoughtless men, boys and men of good reputations and ordinarily industrious and sober folks. To publicly attach to such, through a newspaper, a police record is not in our opinion, justified from a news standpoint.

Many late happenings have, however, made us doubt somewhat the correctness of the rule we had established. There are in this city, as doubtless there are in all cities, a number of boys and men whose persistent violations of the laws against drinking, drunkenness, gambling and lasciviousness have become notorious. Some of these boys and men are admitted, more or less, into society, homes where there are pure women and girls, and so far clean, manly boys. It occurs to us that it may be our duty to guard such homes against intrusion into them of the class of men and boys to which we refer, those who persist in unclean and drunken lives, those who have no regard for their own parents, for the law nor for themselves, those who are not only criminal and trifling themselves, but who are constantly leading other boys and men into the disreputable kind of life they themselves are voluntarily living.

Publicity of the escapades, reporting the lawlessness and the arrests and fines imposed on such boys and men as these cannot make them worse than they are. Publicity of that kind may, and will, make for shame and sore hearts of the parents and other relatives and friends of such, and the question we have to decide is whether the good that will accrue by such pub-

POLITENESS A BUSINESS ASSET.

Birmingham Age-Herald.

Not only should politeness be cultivated for its own sake, but it is a profitable business asset and should be valued accordingly. The circular letter which President Fairfax Harrison of the Southern railway has issued to all officers and employees of his company on the subject of courtesy, and which was reproduced in The Age-Herald of yesterday, is one of the evidences of attention which public service corporations are now giving to matters formerly considered too small for executive consideration. Many of the great railroad companies of this country have issued similar circulars.

In the early days of railroad transportation questions pertaining to rates and traffic facilities occupied the public mind. This or that line became unpopular because of alleged exorbitant charges and rate discriminations. But it was plain to see that the arrogant manner of some railroad officials and the disobliging spirit of some of the employees contributed to the public feeling aroused against railroads in general. A great deal of railroad balking in which politeness have indulged would have been wholly ineffectual had it not been for the incivility which patrons of the road had received at the hands of station agents and transportation officials.

But this is an age of progress, and the saying of the late W. W. Finley, president of the Southern at the time of his death, "He serves the railroad best who serves the public best," has come to be a popular motto.

Mr. Harrison in his letter impresses upon employees the fact that "a railroad is first of all a public servant." He then goes on to show that "the success of a railroad as a business enterprise depends in large measure not only upon the efficiency of the transportation afforded, but upon the personal treatment which those doing business with the railroad receive at the hands of its officers and employees." It follows, therefore, that "each officer and employee should in addition to doing everything in his power to promote the physical efficiency of the service must at all times consider the moral efficiency." And this, Mr. Harrison says, means first of all that he should treat all patrons of the company and others with whom he may come in contact with politeness and courtesy.

This rule will be observed all along the line. Railroad companies that have not already issued similar letters will soon do so. In the meanwhile politeness will be the rule on all of our southern lines.

The only trouble about the failure of the H. B. Claffin Co., in New York the other day, that the figures were too big for the ordinary man to grasp. There are so few firms that could fail for $25,000,000.

Mr. Cumble, the "Bicycle Man," says Dr. Macon Filled His Native Family With Glasses.

Dothan, Ala., June 26, 1914.
Dr. J. E. Macon,
Dothan, Ala.

Dear Sir:

Several months ago you fitted my wife with glasses, and they are the best that she has ever had. Her headaches and nervousness are greatly relieved.

In a few weeks you fitted my little girl and mother and they were relieved. A few days ago you fitted my niece and myself, and I must say that the five pair of glasses that you have fitted us have given us perfect satisfaction in every respect.

I can certainly recommend your work to anyone that uses glasses or having trouble with their eyes.

With best wishes, I am
Yours truly,
E. C. Cumble.

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Re-

E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Flowers, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite.
The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pink-bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I have every woman who suffers like I did with try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. E. W. Loomis, Roxie No. 1, Flowers, South Dakota.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacement, inflammation, obstruction, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to

MANHOTTEN CUCUMBERS.

If there was a vegetable fair in Dothan now O. H. Williams would surely get first prize on cucumbers.

Mr. Williams stepped an Eagle man this morning and reaching into a two and a-half bushel basket full of cucumbers he had just gathered, presented him with one of average size.

This particular vegetable whose encounters have been known at times to create considerable disturbance in certain portions of the human system, was eleven and a quarter inches in length and weighed eighteen ounces, which in the refined and elegant parlance of the street,
"is some cucumber."

U. S. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE RULING AIDS SOUTHERN STOCK CATTLE RAISERS

St. Louis, June 27.—The United States Department of Agriculture is maintaining a vigorous campaign in co-operation with various state authorities looking to the final elimination of the cattle fever tick. However, this Department very wisely realizes that with careful handling and proper dipping cattle from quarantine districts of the South may be moved to Northern pastures of feed lots in perfect safety and with absolutely no danger of spreading the disease to non-infected areas.

The Secretary of Agriculture has just issued regulations effective July 1 of this year, governing the movement of quarantine cattle.

Under the former system Southern cattle intended for sale at stockers had to be held at the yards five to twelve days and then re-dipped. This delay was a handicap to the trade. Under the new regulations, however, the cattle may be dipped at the yards within a period of five to twelve days after the last certified dipping prior to shipment to market.

The St. Louis National Stock Yards Company will immediately install an arsenical dipping vat at these yards which will be in addition to the present oil dips, shippers getting the advantage of a choice of dips. In some sections of the north there have come complaints of cat, the being killed by the arsenical dip.

THE INDIAN—A FEATURE OF FORD SERVICE

Recognizing the great field of usefulness of the motorcycle as an auxiliary of automobile service organization, the Hendee Manufacturing Company submitted their proposition to the Ford Motor Company at Detroit.

The able presentation by the Metzger Staff, the Indian dealer of Detroit, of the advantages of Indian Motorcycles to enable Ford service men to respond promptly to calls from owners on the road, favorably impressed the Ford executives and engineering staff, and prompted them to an exhaustive and searching investigation of the possibilities of the motorcycle in auto service work.

They found the Indian so well adapted to this work that he decision was reached to improve Ford service by the use of Indians, and a fleet of 50 machines was ordered, with instructions to deliver two Indian Motorcycles to 25 of the most important Branch Service Stations. The Ford Motor Company's endorsement of Indian Motorcycles is sufficient to convince any manufacturer or merchant of their commercial possibilities and value.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pailling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework."

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all drug stores.
